

How to register your non-Dutch bank account

The bank account registration form you received is to register your non-Dutch bank account. The holder's name of the bank account should correspond with your personal name. The tax office verifies the holder's name with the name on your copy passport.

For Dutch bank account registration, please visit your MyBlue Page or use your DigiD account.

INSTRUCTIONS

Please follow these steps to register your non-Dutch bank account:

1. Verify your registration details displayed in the registration form
2. Print the document
3. Place your signature in the area marked as 'Sign here' (bottom page, above your name)
4. Add a printed copy of your passport
5. Add a printed copy of your bank statement, showing your name and your account number
6. Send copy passport, copy bank statement and signed registration form to the address printed in the header of the registration form

Frequently asked questions

I found a typo in the registration form

If you find typo's on the registration form, resubmit the form using the link provided.

Can I print a screenshot of my online bank account?

You may print a screenshot of your online bank account, provided the bank account holder's name and the account number are clearly visible. Transaction details on the statement you may make illegible.

Where to send the registration form?

The registration form needs to be sent to:

Belastingkantoor –Centrale Administratie
Unit Registreren
Postbus 9055
7300 GT APELDOORN
NETHERLANDS

Can I send the documents electronically?

Unfortunately, you cannot send the documents electronically. The tax office requires an original of the signed registration form. Therefore, make sure to sign the printer registration form and mail this form to the tax office.

Can I mail the documents to Blue Umbrella for further processing?

You may send the signed registration document, copy of your passport and copy of your bank statement to Blue Umbrella. However, it is our experience that your registration request may be rejected as we cannot present a signed original to the tax office. This may delay your registration.
